Tower Hall Comes Down Within 30 Days—Burton

By KATHY NORRIS

Tower Hall's ivy-covered walls—so long a landmark at SJS—will be torn down within 30 days, according to Executive Dean C. Grant Burton. Only the Tower and Morris Dailey auditorium will remain.

Awarded the renovation contract last Friday following augmentation of funds by the California Public Works Board was Herwig of California, a construction firm in Campbell.

Renovation operations will be proceeding according to the basic plan as outlined by the State Board of Trustees last January: First, the Tower and auditorium will be refurbished. Second, the wings of Tower Hall will be torn down and the area landscaped. Third, one and one-third blocks of land north of San Carlos on Ninth and 10th Streets would be purchased for classroom buildings. Action on the third point of the plan depends on whether the bond issue is passed in November, Dean Burton stated.

Renovation of Tower Hall was decided upon by the State Board of Trustees nearly a year after the building was condemned as unsafe and closed in 1963.

A report by the State Division of Architecture pointed out a number of cracks in the ceilings and window archways of the Tower and auditorium.

The report also revealed the mesh reinforcing walls was less than the amount required by the State. Investigators also contend that the 2-ton bell in the Tower was inadequately supported by a wood frame.

Record Players Stolen

Three record players were reported stolen from three SJS students this past weekend.

At 1 a.m. Saturday morning Trudy Friend, 576 S. Fifth St., discovered the portable stereo in her apartment and $24 from a purse missing.

Both roommates were in her apartment when the thief or thieves entered. One roommate said she thought the noise she heard was that of Miss Friend returning from a date.

In another incident, Garth Glanzer, 494 S. Sixth St., reported a portable phonograph, alarm clock, lighter watch, speaker, and one record taken from his apartment at 6:30 p.m. Saturday. The stolen goods are valued at $35, plus the cost of the phonograph.

A third record-player theft was reported by Kappa Sigma fraternity, 481 S. Fifth St., sometime Saturday night. Also missing were an amplifier with enclosed speakers and a purse with $15, taken from a car parked outside. The record player and amplifier are valued at $95.

SJS Professor Performs Today In Concert Hall

Comprising the course content of Professor Patrick Meierotto's Survey of Music Literature class, concerts are presented twice weekly, Tuesdays and Thursdays, 11:30-12:20 in Concert Hall.

Professor Ryan will also appear in concert Friday night in the Montgomery Theater of the San Jose Civic Auditorium.

Student Agency Interviews Today

Committee Studies Tower List Protest

The letter of protest written by Owen M. Broyles against the Tower List is still being considered by the Committee on Student Affairs.

Dr. Harold DeBey, associate professor of Chemistry, is head of the committee, which is part of the Academic Council. He stated that his committee had begun to consider the letter. They have 30 days from the time that the issue was referred to it to report their recommendations to the Academic Council.

Professor Broyles attacked the Tower List, a student evaluation list of professors at SJS, as being "libelous."

Tower List is published by the Tau Delta Phi Honorary Scholastic Fraternity.

The Academic Council meets every other week, and they are scheduled for a meeting next week. The Committee on Student Affairs must report their findings to the Academic Council either at this meeting or the next.

Swimming Tests Offered Today

The first of three swimming exemption tests offered by the Women's Physical Education Department is scheduled for today from 4:50 to 5:30 p.m. in the women's pool.

The test, which is one way in which SJS coeds may fulfill the swimming requirement, consists of a 10-minute swim, during which the student demonstrates four of the five basic strokes.

Coeds are to provide their own soap and caps. The department will furnish suits and towels.

Two additional exemption tests are planned for tomorrow and Oct. 14, 4:50 to 5:30 p.m. in the women's pool.

Further information may be obtained from Dr. Lois Kruger, assistant professor of physical education, at WG18.

Feature Film 'Grand Illusion' Shown Tomorrow

"Grand Illusion" is the feature in tomorrow's Classic Film Series in TH55 at 3:30 and 7 p.m.

Preceding the feature is "Very Nice, Very Nice," a humorous film which shows "the anxieties we want to forget in everyday life" according to sponsors Spartan Programs Committee and Rollin E. Buckman, AV Service Center Coordinator.

Admission is free.

"On the two issues of nuclear power and of human rights, I say that the gentleman from Arizona has disqualified himself to be President of the United States."

Speaking with hoarseness from a cold, Sen. Hubert Humphrey, vice presidential aspirant from Minnesota, denounced Sen. Barry Goldwater in front of a crowd of students and local citizens, estimated at between 8-10 thousand.

"President (Harry S.) Truman, President (Dwight D.) Eisenhower and President (John F.) Kennedy all tried desperately... to bring a halt to nuclear expansion, to stop nuclear tests before the arms race got completely out of hand."

"We negotiated a treaty, the overwhelming majority of the representatives and senators rallied as one to see to it that... atomic energy was used to save lives not destroy them. But not Sen. Goldwater."

On the issue of civil rights, Sen. Humphrey commented, "We knew it (Civil Rights Bill) was right, not because it had any political benefits—in fact maybe it had some political liabilities—we knew it was right morally. We knew that

San Josean Is Cousin Of Humphrey

Out of the crowd during Monday's political hubbub, a San Jose mother of five emerged and shook hands with her cousin, Sen. Hubert Humphrey.

For Mrs. Miles D. Inwards of Devonshire Drive, it was an ambition fulfilled.

"Years ago when Cousin Hubert was elected to the Senate, my mother commented she babysat for him when he was a toddler. I've always wanted to meet him," said Mrs. Inwards.

She is a second cousin of the Democratic Vice Presidential candidate. Their grandmothers were sisters.

The Inwards family is full of political activity. Mrs. Inwards is recording secretary for Cupertino City Council; her husband holds a civil service job as administrator in the regional post office in San Francisco, and she indicated her oldest son, Gary, 16, may major in political science at SJS.

In her spare time, Mrs. Inwards belongs to the Calabazas Democratic Club and is a precinct captain. She said she has marched door to door collecting dollars for Democrats to support her cousin's candidacy.

Seventh Street

The San Jose City Council last night decided to extend the temporary closing of Seventh Street through the SJS campus.

The street, closed since last fall, will remain barricaded until June of 1965. Further negotiations between city and school officials on the permanent street closing will take place during this time.

Fred Schwarz Appears at SJS Thursday Night

"The Communist Attack on Sen. Barry Goldwater" will be among the topics discussed by Dr. Fred Schwarz, president of the Christian Anti-Communism Crusade (CACC), at an anti-Communist rally Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Men's Gym.

Also speaking at the rally will be former FBI counterespionage Philbrick, Philbrick is author of a best-selling book about his anti-Communist activities as a counter-spy, "I Led Three Lives."

Philbrick's topic will be "Communism, the Campus and the FBI." Dr. Schwarz will discuss "Present Communist Strategy."

Dr. Schwarz and Philbrick will appear at SJS as part of a northern California speaking tour for the CACC. Their appearance on this campus is sponsored by Young Americans for Freedom (YAF), a national conservative youth organization.

Off the Cuff

By BILL LEONARD

I was attending candidate Humphrey's speech when first I noticed the crowd.

"You must be awfully political," says I, approaching her in my suave, urbane, sophisticated manner.

"No," says she, "but don't you think they're pretty?"

Affirming her the campaign buttons which bedecked her blouse were, indeed, attractive, I sidled closer on the pretext of examining the buttons in order to pursue the conversation.

"Don't you feel," says I, "that this is the most crucial election facing the American public in more than 100 years?"

"Yeah," says she, "and it's gonna be pretty important, too."

"I notice," says I, "that you favor the incumbent."

"Well no," says she, "I kinda like President Johnson."

"Why do you so stand, milady?" I queried.

"Oh," says she, "the President is such a friendly looking man. He's thrifty, too. He always turns off the White House lights, too, and like that."

"Ah," says I, in a confidential tone, "then you like the President's public image?"

"Yeah," says she, "Ladybird and the girls and like that."

"So," says I, "in other words, you think the youth of America will identify with the Johnson girls?"

"Well," says she, "Laci does a pretty snakey watusi."

"Indeed," says I, "Then you think the Johnson public image is more important than a discussion of the issues?"

"Like I said," says she, smiling prettily over her shoulder as she walked away, "Laci does a pretty snakey watusi."

Upon such issues, friends, is the future of the world decided.

"THAT'S PROGRESS, OLD BOY."

'Clergy Leading Us Into Dark Age'

Editor:

Although I have always been a critic of the underlying tenets of Christianity, I have held the highest respect for some of its most vociferous adherents. Don Emmel, spreader of the social gospel for the sheep in his SJS flock has reinstituted a question in my mind, however, as to whether Christianity is degenerating, or degenerates.

In 19 short centuries, Christians apparently have fallen from the courageous sort that faced lions in the Circus Maximus to trembling cowards begging a handful of third-rate pseudo-artists not to be represented unfairly lest almighty public opinion be turned against them.

Alas, it seems that the clergy is to become politically active—but who will do the job of the clergy? Not Pastor Emmel, whose taste in art is as questionable as his grasp of problems political.

Finally, that which does not seek after the true end of art cannot be art. The end of art is beauty, not politics, and despite the overwhelming simplicity of this view in our modern complex society, let me add that the kind of stuff hanging in the art gallery would make fine bumper strips (with the appropriate candidates' names attached), but they are poor excuses for art.

Indeed, while the "clergy" ascends to the throne, and the "artists" stir their caldrons, I'll hope for a quick end to the Dark Age into which they are leading us.

Math Professor Backs Tower List

Editor:

I have never been included in the Tower List, which may explain my tolerant attitude toward its obvious mistakes and point-less cruelties.

I think it would be a pity if this enterprise were abandoned or put under the control of the administration. The law of libel protects an injured faculty member just as it does any other public figure. I see no reason for thinking we are so delicate as to require additional safeguards.

Nor do I think we are exempt from the human frailty of responding to outside pressures in our work. I suggest that the pressures on the professor are not likely to improve his teaching and that the Tower List might redress the balance.

There is no lack of pressure on the professor to do things other than teach students. If he wants to make money he should write a book or sell a research project to a Foundation. If he wants to be popular at home he should take his wife to the theater and help his children with their homework. If he gives outside lectures or performs some service to the community, he may win recognition from the administration. Should he devote his time to committee work or research for publication, he will win the admiration of his colleagues, and perhaps a promotion. I have even read in the Spartan Daily that he should avoid controversy if he wants to be promoted.

None of these pressures, except the last, is bad for teaching; but I do not believe that the pressures for good teaching are nearly so strong. My argument for the Tower List is not that it infallibly rewards virtue and punishes vice; nor do any of the other pressures I have mentioned. It is simply that it redresses the balance of power to the benefit of the student.

Cal Aftermath

Brown Wants Report

BERKELEY (UPI) — The excitement over three days of mass protest on the University of California campus refused to die down today, although the demonstrations ended on Friday.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown wrote to University President Clark Kerr Sunday and demanded an extensive report on the demonstration.

"I would like a detailed account of its causes, what actions were taken and why, what issues were involved and what recommendations you have for preventing similar situations in the future," the governor said.

Kerr responded that the university had already begun an investigation before the Governor asked.

Meantime, the Executive Committee of the Association of California State College Professors issued a statement Sunday in support of the student demonstrations.

The demonstration was in protest of university regulations restricting collection of funds on campus for political purposes, soliciting membership in political organizations, and recruiting demonstrators on campus for off-campus sit-ins and the like.

The protests started last week as deliberate violations of the "no politics" rules. This resulted in the suspension of eight students—and sparked the mass demonstrations, beginning on Wednesday.

By Friday evening, an estimated 4,000 demonstrators had gathered on the Berkeley campus, surrounding a police car containing a non-student, Jack Weinberg, 24, who was under police arrest. He had been arrested on Thursday, but the demonstrators refused to let police take him away.

Hundreds of law officers also were on the campus Friday, prepared to make mass arrests. But student and university administration negotiators finally reached an agreement which resulted in break-up of the demonstration.

It provided that the university would re-examine its rules with the help of a student-faculty committee.

The Greatest Life Ever Lived

Jesus of Nazareth was born over 1960 years ago. For hundreds of years the great prophets of Israel had foretold His coming. The Old Testament, which was written by many individuals during a period of 1500 years, contains over 300 references to Christ. At the age of 30 He began His ministry. Space will not allow for detail except to say that in the three years that followed, He gave man the formula for a full and abundant life and for the life to come.

The life Jesus led, the miracles He performed, the words He spoke, His death on the Cross, His resurrection, His ascent into heaven, all point to the fact that He was not mere man, but more than man, as He Himself claimed: "I and my Father are One" (John 10:30). "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father" (John 14:9).

Arnold Toynbee, the eminent historian of our day, has given more space to Jesus of Nazareth than to any other six great men who have ever lived combined, including Mohammed, Buddha, Caesar, Napoleon, George Washington, etc.

The Encyclopedia Britannica devotes 20,000 words to Jesus. Men of other lands and religions who have investigated the evidence will agree that Jesus was a great leader and influence for good of all the centuries.

It is significant to consider that Jesus claimed to be God. He claimed to be the author of a new way of life. Wherever this message has gone, new life, new hope, and purpose of living have resulted. Either Jesus of Nazareth was Whom He claimed to be, the Son of God, the Savior of mankind, or He was the greatest imposter the world has ever known. If His claims were false, a lie has accomplished more good than the truth ever has!

Regarding the claims of Jesus, Professor Archibald M. Hunter of Aberdeen University says: "Then what manner of man is this who knows that by His dying He will inaugurate this new and blessed order of relations between God and men? No mortal man makes such a claim, or we know him to be mad. We are driven back on the words of wise old 'Rabbi' Duncan: 'Christ either deceived mankind by conscious fraud, or He Himself was deluded, or He was divine. There is no getting out of this dilemma'." (Colloquia Peripatetica)

Because His claims to Deity were alien to the Jewish thought of His day the impression of His contemporaries is important. Peter said, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." (Matthew 16:16). Martha said, "Yes, Lord: I have believed that thou art the Christ, the Son of God." (John 11:27). Thomas said, "My Lord and my God" (John 20:28). John the Baptist said, "Behold, the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world." (John 1:29). Philip said, "Him of whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus of Nazareth" (John 2:45). Nathaniel—"The Son of God, the King of Israel." (John 1:49). The centurion who with his Roman soldiers was assigned to watch over Jesus at the crucifixion, said, "Truly this was God's Son!" (Matthew 27:54)

In fulfillment of prophecy, attested to by His contemporaries and confirmed by multitudes through the centuries, Jesus Christ came that you might have an "abundant life." He came to die on the cross that you need not perish but have everlasting life. His very own life imparted to you.

Your response to the claims of Jesus Christ will determine your eternal destiny as well as the quality of life which you live on this earth.

In John's Gospel, Chapter 1, verse 12 we have the promise, "But as many as received Him (Jesus Christ) to them gave He power to become the Sons of God." To receive Christ involves the commitment of your life as in a true marriage relationship the husband and wife give themselves to each other. Begin this great adventure with Christ today, the adventure for which He created you.

Poloists Overwhelm Bears; Earn First League Victory

Scoring their second lopsided victory in a row, the varsity water polo team remained undefeated as it overwhelmed the University of California, 20-6, in the Spartan Pool Friday.

Cal was expected to be more competition, but appeared as baffled as San Fernando Valley, a 31-3 victim the week before.

Led by Frank Barnes with 6 goals, the Spartan scoring was diversified as usual. Five of the six starters scored in the first quarter.

At the beginning of the second stanza, with San Jose State leading 7-1, Coach Lee Walton inserted his second unit. As the first unit left the pool, it was given a two-minute standing ovation by the capacity crowd.

Bonds Honored

Bob Bonds, a man who does everything for the SJS football team but sweep out the stadium, was named the Northern Cal Football Writers Lineman of the Week for his outstanding play against MSC Saturday. All Bonds did was score SJS' first touchdown on an intercepted pass, make numerous tackles, and played deep as a receiver on punts and kickoffs.

Neff, Thew Win Run-Off Arm-in-Arm

Joe Neff and Howard Thew secured positions on the defending national collegiate champion cross-country team as they crossed the finish line arm-in-arm in a run-off staged Friday at Spartan Field.

The purpose of the run-off was to determine placing for the Sacramento Invitational Saturday.

Four other runners, Danny Murphy, Tom Tuite, Phil Darnall, and Dave Lower already had made the team. These six, along with Larry Crider as the seventh man and Louie Davidson as an alternate, will tangle with the powerful Stanford Indians Saturday at Sacramento.

Art Burkhard, an unheralded freshman, finished third in the run-off. Burkhard, along with George Weed, are San Jose State's prime freshman All-American candidates. The freshmen, also defending national champions, are expected to maintain their status this year.

Thew and Neff were interviewed immediately after the run-off. "Joe and I had a pre-arranged strategy to finish together," said Thew. "Both of us felt stronger as the race progressed, with the knowledge that we were in the lead. I feel proud to be a member of this potential championship team. The enthusiasm shown this year is as great as any of the SJS cross-country teams I have been associated with since I have been at SJS."

"We actually have begun to relish the physical pain and agony necessary to mold a champion. With the possible exception of New Zealand, our distance running program is the best in the world. Coach Merv Smith has been a wonderful inspiration."

"With the addition of Neff and Thew," said Coach Smith, "we will have infinitely greater depth than we had at our narrow victory over Long Beach. If the improvement of the last two weeks continues, no team in the nation will beat us."

"Larry Crider, who finished fifth in the run-off, and is the seventh man, has made the most improvement of any man on the team. In one year's time, he has made the transition from a mediocre quarter miler to a top flight distance runner."

Parker Hero Against MSC

San Jose State won its first football game of the 1964 season Saturday against host Montana State, thanks to the Spartans' hustling defensive back, Dennis Parker.

MSC half Dan Sundling fumbled an SJS punt that was recovered by Parker late in the fourth period.

Parker, who played most of the game at an altitude of 4500 feet, raced down the field and yelled at Sundling as he neared the MSC punt receiver.

"Sundling kept looking at me, four or five times, while I was charging him," explained Parker. "I guess he took his eye off the ball and dropped it when I was right on top of him."
